COURSE DESCRIPTIONS

Counselling in the Local Church

by Mr Joel Seah, M.A. in Counselling (Pastoral Staff of Life Bible-Presbyterian Church) Monday, 7:30 pm - 9:30 pm (Beginning on 6 January)

The purpose of this course is to broaden students' understanding of counselling to include all relationships. It seeks to build a thoroughly biblical understanding of the local church as a ministering community where everyone plays a part. It will help students find their place of ministry within the context of the local church and help others do the same. (2 credits)

The Epistles of Peter

by Rev Bendick Ong, M.Div. (Associate Pastor of Calvary Bible-Presbyterian Church) Thursday, 7.30 pm – 9.30 pm (Beginning on 9 January)

The epistles of Peter reflect the character and the experiences of the author. First Peter is an epistle describing the triumphant Christian in the midst of suffering. Second Peter is an epistle defending the truth of the Christian Gospel in the face of false teachings. This course will bring the students through both epistles, highlighting the reality that believers face in a world, one that is both hostile to and yet in desperate need of the Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ. (2 credits)
